Attorneys Fees subject to Court Approval upon separate Application for Approval of Fees

III. Treatment of Secured Claims

If a secured claim is not provided for in Section III, then the trustee will not disburse any funds to the holder of the claim. If a claim listed in the plan as secured is filed or otherwise allowed as fully unsecured, the trustee will pay the claim as an unsecured claim as provided in Section V, and the claim will not be paid as a secured claim under Section III.

If a secured creditor obtains relief from the automatic stay as to collateral listed in Section III, the trustee will cease further payments to that creditor and, as of the date of entry of the order granting stay relief, the plan will be deemed not to provide for that creditor's secured claims beyond payments actually made to the creditor as of that date.

Payment of Notices filed under Rule 3002.1(c): The trustee will pay post-petition notices of fees, expenses, and charges filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002.1(c) ("3002.1(c) Notice") pro rata when the trustee pays other secured creditors, unless the debtor timely objects to the 3002.1(c) Notice. A modified plan may be required to maintain feasibility. If the debtor timely objects, the trustee will pay the amount as determined by the court. The trustee will not pay 3002.1(c) Notice amounts if the plan provides for avoidance of the creditor's lien or the surrender of all property securing the creditor's claim.

- A. Payment in Full: With the exception of tax claims of governmental units, the claims listed below will be paid in full, with the interest rate stated below. If the plan does not state an interest rate, the proof of claim controls the rate of interest. If no interest rate is listed in the plan or the proof of claim, the plan pays the claim without interest. For tax claims of governmental units, the debtor must state the rate required by 11 U.S.C. § 511 to permit the parties to calculate feasibility.

The allowed claim amount stated on a proof of claim controls over any contrary claim amount listed in this section, whether the allowed claim amount is higher or lower (applies to Section IIIA only).

The holder of any allowed secured claim listed in this section will retain its lien as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(5)(B)(i).

- B. Maintenance of Payments and Cure of Default: The debtor(s) will maintain payments during the case on the allowed secured claims listed below pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b)(5).

The trustee will pay the arrearage listed on any allowed proof of claim filed before the deadline under Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c) or 3004. If the interest rate is left blank, the trustee will not pay interest on the arrearage. The installment payments will be paid as indicated below.

Any arrearage and the current monthly installment listed on a proof of claim (or a notice filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3002.1) control over any contrary amounts stated below.

POST-PLAN AGREEMENT

Jennifer and Israel McKinney (the McKinneys) and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), through their respective counsel, enter into this agreement regarding the McKinneys' tax liability to the IRS and payment of that liability in their Chapter 13 bankruptcy Case, No. 22-11558 (Bankr. W.D. Wisc.). The following Recitals are to explain the genesis of this agreement and may be used to construe it, but any factual error shall not be a ground to alter or modify the Terms.

Recitals

The McKinneys jointly filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy on September 27, 2022, in the Western District of Wisconsin Bankruptcy Court, Case No. 22-11558.

1. The IRS filed in the case a proof of claim for $1,426,365.43, consisting of a secured component of $533,484.82, a priority component of $555,622.65, and a general unsecured component of $337,257.96. Following the filing of the bankruptcy case, the IRS received funds that it has applied to the tax debt, including funds from the Chapter 13 Trustee that Jennifer McKinney paid in a previously-dismissed Chapter 13 case, No. 22-10661 ($38,326.92), funds from the levy of an IRA account in early 2023 ($112,324.16), funds consisting of Israel McKinney's 2022 tax refund ($12,059), sale proceeds from the sale of the McKinneys' homestead ($21,590.78), and adequate protection payments made during the 22-11558 Chapter 13 case (totaling approximately $61,000 through September of 2023). Although only $21,590.78 was received by the IRS from the homestead proceeds, the IRS valuation of the secured claim attributed $102,500 to the homestead collateral and so the secured claim is reduced by $102,500 as of the petition date). The secured claim is also reduced by the $112,234.16 from the IRA levy (as of the date the IRS received the funds). The adequate protection payments reduce the secured claim (applied as each payment was received by the IRS). The other two amounts (2022 refund offset and levy on Chapter 13 Trustee in previous case) will be applied to general unsecured liabilities since those assets were not valued in computing the secured claim as filed. After applying the above-referenced post-petition payments and accounting for post-petition interest, the secured claim, as of September 2023, is $272,759.73.

2. Upon approval of this agreement, the IRS will amend its claim to add a § 1305 claim to its prepetition priority claim in the estimated amount of $120,000 for the 2022 tax year, which will later be further amended to reflect the tax reported for year 2022, plus the applicable penalty for failure to make quarterly estimated payments under 26 U.S.C. § 6654, pursuant to § 507(a)(8)(G) (pecuniary loss penalty related to priority tax). Accordingly, the IRS's priority claim will increase from $555,622.65 to $675,622.65 (subject to adjustment as stated).

3. In the McKinneys' proposed Chapter 13 plan, they propose to pay the priority claim (including the § 1305 claim) in full over the five-year plan term. They propose to pay the secured claim in full over 90 months at 8.0% interest, in monthly payments but the parties recognize that the plan itself cannot extend beyond 60 months and so payments due after that must be agreed to outside the plan. To effectuate that agreement and also to aid in confirmation of the plan, the parties agree as follows:

Terms

1. The McKinneys shall propose a plan that provides for a term with an anticipated completion of September 2027 (the Plan), and, thus, 44 months from the projected confirmation date in January 2024. The Plan will pay the secured and unsecured tax claims of the IRS in part – specifically (a) the priority unsecured claims shall be paid in full through the Plan in equal monthly installments (with prepetition interest but excluding post-petition interest) computed after the pre-confirmation plan payments held by the Trustee are distributed first to pay administration expenses with the balance to be paid toward the IRS priority claim; (b) the secured claim will be paid by making installment payments during the plan term equal to the amount needed to amortize the secured debt over 90 months from confirmation at 8% interest compounded monthly pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 511; and (c) the unsecured general (non-priority claim) will share pro rata with other claims of that class whatever amounts are distributed by the chapter 13 trustee toward general unsecured claims.

2. Upon timely completion of the Plan, any remaining tax liability shall be nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(1)(C), but any unpaid balance shall be forgiven as provided below if the McKinnys continue making monthly payments toward the secured claim, starting upon plan completion, and continuing every month on or before the 1st of that month until all 90 monthly payments toward the secured claim have been made (inclusive of those made during the plan term pursuant to the Plan and those made thereafter pursuant to this Agreement). The payments during the plan term will be made by the chapter 13 trustee and the payments made after the plan term will be made directly to IRS by instructions to be provided.

3. Except for the 2022 tax year for which a claim under 11 U.S.C. § 1305 will be filed and paid through the plan as an additional priority claim, each of the McKinnys shall remain current with all post-petition tax obligations, including filing returns timely, paying the tax shown thereon to the extent not satisfied by withholdings or estimated prepayments, and commencing immediately and continuing estimated prepayments on at least a quarterly basis, as required under the Internal Revenue Code.

4. If there is no (uncured) default by either of the McKinnys of the above terms during the Plan or after the Plan during the period of continued monthly payments on the secured tax debt, then the remaining balance of the tax liability will be waived and marked satisfied and deemed discharged, despite being otherwise excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(1)(C).

a. Any default consisting of a missed payment -- either to the Trustee during the plan or to the IRS on the remainder of the secured claim after completion of the plan -- may be cured by making payment within ten days of notice of default, except that if three monthly payments are missed, no notice or opportunity to cure shall be required and the United States may declare the entire then-existing tax liability fully due and owing and pay proceed to collect that liability with the automatic stay deemed lifted for that purpose and the debtors shall have no right to reinstate the stay except by: (1) showing that in fact they did not default; or (2) immediately making up all missed payments before filing any motion to reinstate the stay.

b. Any default on the obligation to remain current with post-petition tax obligations shall similarly entitle to the United States to collect the full amount of the then-existing tax liability by any lawful means unless any tax owed is fully paid with interest and penalties and/or any unfiled return that is filed within thirty days of notice of default (subject to obtaining relief from the automatic stay if the bankruptcy discharge has not yet been entered). In addition, any failure to pay post-petition tax other than income tax for the 2022 year (for which a § 1305(b) claim will be filed and qualify as a priority claim), shall entitle the United States at its sole option to dismissal of the case with a one-year prohibition on filing another bankruptcy petition unless another creditor prefers conversion to Chapter 7 and the Court rules in that creditor's favor. If the case is for any reason is converted to Chapter 7, the tax liabilities shall be deemed non-dischargeable under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(1)(C) as provided above and the IRS shall be entitled to an order immediately lifting the stay to permit collection of the nondischargeable liabilities for tax and interest as well as any penalties falling under § 523(a)(7).

5. During the plan term, the period of limitations on collection of the taxes is tolled under 26 U.S.C. § 6503(h). During the period following the plan term in which the remainder of the secured debt is to be paid in continued monthly installments, debtors agree that the period of limitations on collection of the taxes shall continue to be tolled and acknowledge that this is authorized as part of the settlement authority of the Attorney General under 26 U.S.C. § 7122 (and by analogy is authorized for IRS installment agreements under 26 U.S.C. § 6502(a)(2)(A)). Should it become necessary for the United States to file a suit for judgment in order to prevent the period of limitations on collection from expiring under § 6502(a), as a result of a default under this Agreement or otherwise, the McKinnys shall consent to judgment promptly after any such suit is filed and service of process is made on them.

6. This constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and may not be modified except in writing signed by all parties, except that a party may unilaterally waive a right of that party under this Agreement if done in writing signed on behalf of that party and no waiver of any right at any time shall be construed to require additional waivers of a similar nature.

7. In the event of any inadvertent inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and any confirmed Chapter 13 plan, the United States shall have the right to have the plan be modified to make it consistent with this Agreement. Should confirmation of a plan consistent with this Agreement be denied without leave to submit a superseding plan that is consistent with this Agreement, this Agreement shall be null and void.

8. When signed on behalf of the McKinnes this document shall constitute a settlement offer and the signature of the Assistant United States Attorney shall certify that acceptance of the offer has been approved on behalf of the Attorney General. This Agreement is not understood to make any concessions on behalf of the bankruptcy estate and therefore it is the parties' position that a motion to approve this Agreement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 separate from confirmation of a plan consistent herewith is not required and confirmation of a plan consistent with this Agreement shall be understood to subsume approval of the terms of this Agreement.
